Andean Abyss – Removing Enemy Bases

These are the ways you can eliminate another faction's bases. These are brief summaries. Refer to the Player Aid cards and the rules for more details.

1) An Event allows it.
2) Government
   a) Assault: All guerrillas of the target faction must be Active and eliminated before the Base.
   b) Air Strike: Base has must be alone (no guerrillas or guerrillas eliminated by accompanying Assault).
   c) Eradicate: Select one department and remove all Cartel Bases there. This increases Aid and Opposition.
3) AUC
   a) Attack: All guerrillas of the target faction must be eliminated before eliminating the Base.
   b) Ambush: This is an enhanced form of Attack.
   c) Assassinate: Base can be selected as the 1 enemy piece that is removed regardless of the presence of the target faction's guerrillas. AUC guerrillas must outnumber Police.
4) Cartels
   a) Attack: same as AUC
   b) Bribe: Base can be removed in the selected space regardless of the presence of the target faction's guerillas.
5) FARC
   a) Attack: Same as AUC
   b) Ambush: Same as AUC
